

Maths, What's the Point?

This mathematics-themed day gives students the opportunity to explore the importance of maths, not only when it comes to sitting their GCSEs but also in real life contexts and careers beyond their time at school.

Open to Year 9 students from the University of Kent's Partner and KMPF schools.

Date: Wednesday 29th March 2023

Location: University of Kent, Canterbury campus

University of
Kent