International Programmes is seeking to employ two ambassadors to help organise and provide a programme of social events and activities for Pre-Sessional and Short Course students from May to September 2023, potentially extending to December 2023. The role will involve occasional work between May and July, with most hours falling in August when we are at our busiest.

We are offering our Pre-sessional courses both online and on campus this year. You will be responsible for overseeing planned daytrips to local places of interest at weekends, meeting and greeting students on campus, attending social events and other duties as and when required. We would also like our Student Ambassadors to plan and run weekly online enrichment sessions that will be open for all Pre-sessional students to attend, and potentially opened out to our Short Course students also.

For information about our Pre-sessional courses please see Pre-sessional English Courses at Kent.

For information about our Short Courses please see Short Courses.

For an insight into what it’s like to be a Pre-sessional student and the potential impact you could have as an Ambassador please see the following YouTube videos:

So, if you have an interest and awareness of intercultural issues, an understanding of what it’s like to be an international student in the UK, enjoy working with an interesting and diverse group of people and would like to work during the summer holidays, we would love to hear from you!

We are looking for two students to work on band B contract (£13.81ph), reflective of the level of responsibility required. You will work with our Student Support and Experience Officers to promote and organise the social programme and are expected to use your initiative to oversee day trips and organise and run online or in person events as and when required. Applicants need to be available to work flexible hours and this would be discussed at interview stage in more detail.

Attached is a job description. If you are interested to know more, please email Amy Moses at a.moses@kent.ac.uk.

To apply, please send a CV and statement of interest by email to Amy by midnight on Sunday 26th February. Subject to selection, interviews will take place on Tuesday 14th March 2023.
