

MUSIC

Spring 2024

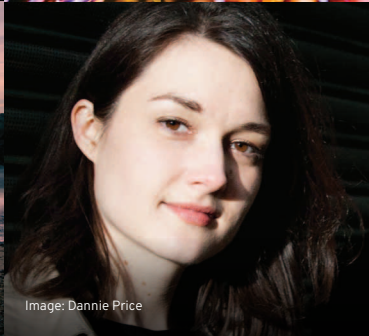

Image: Molly Hollman

Image: Dannie Price

Image: Canterbury Cathedral

Tuesday 13 February, 17:30

Choral Evensong University Cecilian Choir

Canterbury Cathedral Quire

Dan Harding conductor

Students, staff and alumni sing the service of Choral Evensong, including music by Gounod, Brewer and Smith.

T: free

Saturday 2 March, 10:45

Coffee Concert: University String Sinfonia

St Mary of Charity, Faversham

Floriane Peycelon director

Exploring repertoire for string ensemble as part of the church's Coffee Concert series.

T: free, retiring collection

Saturday 9 March, 19:30

The Colyer-Fergusson Cathedral Concert University Chorus, Symphony Orchestra and soloists

Canterbury Cathedral Nave

Dan Harding conductor

Brahms Symphony no.4.

Fauré Requiem

T: £22, £18, £14, £10, £8 (unreserved)

Wednesday 13 March, 13:10

Lunchtime Concert

Colyer-Fergusson Hall

Trish Clowes saxophone

Ross Stanley piano

Featuring music by Duke Ellington, Nikki Iles, Marcel Dupré, Lili Boulanger, as well as compositions by Clowes and Stanley, two of which are dedicated to their respective heroes Wayne Shorter and John Taylor.

T: free, donations welcome

Friday 15 March, 19:30

University Concert Band and Big Band

Colyer-Fergusson Hall

Tayo Fanifosi voice

Ian Swatman conductor

A feast of showtunes, film music and swing.

T: £15 (full) / £8 (students)

Wednesday 27 March, 13:10

Lunchtime Concert: Some Kind of Calm University Music Scholars and Award Holders

Colyer-Fergusson Hall

Dan Harding piano

Music by Ólafur Arnalds for piano and strings, with spectacular landscape photographic projections by award-winning photographer, Molly Hollman.

T: free, donations welcome

furley
page

Sponsors of the Lunchtime Concert Series.

Details were correct at time of printing but may be subject to change; please see the website for latest information.

www.kent.ac.uk/music

University of Kent

Institute of Cultural and Creative Industries
iCCi