| 2 | Female | Applicants who are ‘female or identify as female’ gender. |
| 3 | Disabled | You are disabled under the Equality Act 2010 if you have a physical or mental impairment that has a ‘substantial’ and ‘long-term’ negative effect on your ability to do normal daily activities. ‘Substantial’ is more than minor or trivial, e.g. it takes much longer than it usually would to complete a daily task like getting dressed. ‘Long-term’ means 12 months or more, e.g. a breathing condition that develops as a result of a lung infection. There are special rules about recurring or fluctuating conditions, e.g. arthritis. |
| 4 | Low socioeconomic background | Your home postcode is used to extract the Multiple Deprivation Index for your home area. This will be assessed together with the additional questions about your socioeconomic background. |
| 5 | Care experienced | A care experienced person is someone who has spent time in care during their childhood. |
| 6 | Estranged | An irreconcilably estranged person is someone who has not had any verbal or written contact with their parents for a significant period of time, and this is unlikely to change. This can include your biological or adoptive parents, or | your only living parent. A significant period of time is usually considered to be twelve months or longer, but this can also depend on your circumstances.
