General Matters

1. In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinances: to produce a draft Code of Practice (the Code) on Academic Freedom and Freedom of Expression for approval by the Senate and the Council; to keep the Code under review; and to make recommendations for updates to the Senate and the Council.
2. To support the delivery and the understanding of the importance of academic freedom and free expression and its significance as a guiding value of University culture.
3. To hear complaints and/or receive reports, including those raised confidentially by academic staff and research students, about threats to, or restrictions on, academic freedom arising from University-related activity, and reporting on these annually by way of an Annual Report to the Senate and the Council.

4. To hear complaints and/or receive reports, including those raised confidentially by academic staff and research students, about threats to or restrictions on freedom of expression in regards University related activity and reporting on these annually, by way of an Annual Report, to the Senate and the Council.
5. To consider initial concerns regarding academic freedom and freedom of expression within the University where possible and refer them to other entities for assistance, as necessary.
6. To assist and make recommendations to the Vice Chancellor and their designees regarding encroachments on statutory principles of academic freedom and freedom of expression arising from the application of policies, procedures, and codes of practice of the University.
7. To adjudicate on any appeals arising from a decision to decline the booking of an event or speaker on the grounds of a restriction of freedom of expression from any members, students and employees of the University, including any member or society of the Students Union, and to report annually to Council on such.
8. Generally to make recommendations to the Senate and/or the Council on any matters relating to academic freedom and freedom of speech.
9. As may be required the Committee may meet in order to provide recommendations to Senate and Council in relation to complaints arising under Ordinance # (referring to the academic freedom ordinance) 3.1 and 3.2 as may be appropriate. Further, the Committee is also to provide its recommendation on any issue of breach in relation to Ordinance # (referring to the academic freedom ordinance) 3.3.
10. For any recommendations of the Committee to go forward to Council and/or Senate and/or the Vice Chancellor and for decisions of the Committee to be reported to Council, Senate and/or Vice Chancellor as appropriate.
11. For the Chairs and the Committee to seek and reflect on examples of good practice and sector experience in regards matters of academic freedom and freedom of expression.
