

MUSIC

Spring 2026

Image: Canterbury Cathedral

Friday 20 February, 17:30

Choral Evensong

The Quire, Canterbury Cathedral

Cecilian Choir and alumni

Dan Harding conductor

Choral evensong as part of the University's 60th anniversary celebrations.

Admission free to services at the Cathedral

Wednesday 25 February, 13:10

Lunchtime Concert:

Kentish Piano Trio

Music by Ravel and Lili Boulanger.

T: admission free, suggested donation £3

Wednesday 4 March, 13:10

Minerva Voices:

For the Beauty of the Earth

St Mildred's Church, Canterbury

Dan Harding conductor

Choral music for upper-voices celebrating the natural world.

T: free, retiring collection

Friday 6 March, 19:30

String Sinfonia: British Sounds

Assembly Rooms, Faversham

Flo Peycelon conductor

Exploring British music for string orchestra.

T: free, suggested donation £5

Thursday 12 March, 13:10

Box of Tricks!

An informal lunchtime recital by some of this year's Music Performance Scholars and Award Holders.

T: free

Saturday 14 March, 19:30

The Colyer-Fergusson Concert

University Chorus, Orchestra and soloists

Dan Harding conductor

Mozart's joyous Coronation Mass and Beethoven's Symphony no.8.

T: £15 (full) / £8 (students)

Wednesday 18 March, 13:10

Everyday Wonders:

The Girl from Aleppo

University Cecilian Choir

Dan Harding conductor

Cecilia McDowall's setting tells the tale of Nujeen's journey as a refugee from Syria to Germany.

T: free, donations welcome

Wednesday 18 March, 19:30

Concert Band and Big Band spring gala

Tayo Fanifosi voice

Ian Swatman conductor

T: £15 (full) / £8 (students)

Saturday 25 April

10:30-16:00 rehearsal

17:00 performance

Fauré in a Day!

Chorus and Orchestra

Dan Harding conductor

All welcome to a performance in a day of Fauré's sublime Requiem, as part of the University's 60th anniversary celebrations.

T: free, donations welcome

Concerts are in Colyer-Fergusson Hall unless otherwise stated

furley
page

Sponsors of the Lunchtime Concert Series.

Details were correct at time of printing but may be subject to change; please see the website for latest information.

kent.ac.uk/music

University of Kent

Institute of Cultural and Creative Industries

iCCI